Suggested game:

- Children stand in a line. One child is chosen from the line to guess whether the ferret has run past. One child is the ferret.
 - The child who is guessing closes his/ her eyes. The 'ferret' passes in an obvious fashion in verse 1.
 - The 'ferret' chooses to creep by or not and the chosen child has to guess whether they crept past them in verse 2.
 - The 'ferret' chooses a place to stand and the chosen child has to try and find them - with their eyes shut!
- (You might like to give directions so they can find the other child)
