Origin: American Source: The Kodály Method 1

Formation: Children sit in a circle with their hands behind their backs.

Game:

- Children close their eyes.
- A child walks around the circle and places a coin and a key in two children's hands.
- The child who has the money sings on their own, 'I have the money'.
- The child who has the key sings on their own, 'I have the key'.
- All the children open their eyes but keep their hands behind their back.
- One child is chosen to guess and sing who has the money and the key.

Alternative Game:

Formation: Children sit in a circle and one child is in the middle with their eyes closed.

Game:

- A coin and a key are passed around the circle for the first 2 phrases.
- The child who has the money sings on their own, 'I have the money'.
- The child who has the key sings on their own, 'I have the key'.
- The child in the middle sings who has the money and the key.
